SERIOUS CONDITION

Levy White Not Expected to Survive Shock of Operation.

INJURED BY FALL ON THE ICE

Suffered From Osteo Myelitis and Several Operations Preceded Amputation, Which Was Resorted to Sunday in Hope of Saving Boy's Life.

The condition of Levy White, the son of Commissioner of the Revenue W. H. White, of York county, who underwent a serious operation in the Dixie hospital Sunday, was very serious last night.

The boy fell on the ice last January and injured his leg, osteo myelitis following.

Several operations were performed, in which portions of the bone were removed, but on Saturday gangrene developed.

Sunday the leg was amputated just above the knee, but it is not thought that young White can survive the shock of the last operation. In fact, the attending physician stated last night that the boy can hardly live a day longer.

Dr. G. W. McAllister, assisted by Drs. J. Wilton Hope, G. K. Vander slice and J. W. Brown, performed the operation.

BROTHERHOOD ORGANIZED.

Large and Enthusiastic Society Was Formed Last Night.

The Brotherhood of St. John's church, which has as its object cooperation with the work of the pastor, was organized in St. John's parish house last night, with a good membership.

A number of gentlemen interested in the work met in the parish house at 8 o'clock and formed the organization with the following officers:

President—Mr. William C. L. Tallaferra.

Vice-president—Mr. Louis Heffelfinger.

Secretary—Mr. Howard W. Saunders.

Treasurer—Mr. Arthur Lee.

A constitution and by-laws were adopted. Committees on sick, absentees, strangers, mission meeting and parish papers will be appointed at a later date.

The brotherhood will meet again next Monday evening, when all the men of St. John's congregation, whether communicants of the church or not, are invited to be present.

AFTER THE JUSTICES OF PEACE.

Judge Blackstone Says They Must Make Prompt Report.

Judge Blackstone yesterday announced from the bench that all justices of the peace in Elizabeth City county who fail to make their monthly report by Thursday of this week will be hauled before him on a rule. Judge Blackstone stated he is determined that the magistrates shall live up to the law and that he will force them to make reports regularly to the clerk of the court.

In the event that any justice fails to send his report in by Thursday a rule will be issued against such officer to show cause why he shall not be removed from office.

Commonwealth's Attorney Lewis is in hearty sympathy with the movement to have the justices make their reports regularly and will see that the reports are sent in.

CIRCUIT COURT DOCKET.

Cases to be Heard by Judge Blackstone at March Term.

The March term of the Circuit Court, Judge John W. C. Blackstone, presiding, began yesterday. The entire session, after Judge Blackstone had announced his appointment of the commissioner of the revenue, was taken up with calling the docket and arranging the cases which will be heard at this session.

Next Saturday was named by Judge Blackstone as the date for hearing argument on the demurrer to the evidence of the Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company against W. L. Post. At the last term of the court, Mr. Post was awarded the sum of $7,500 for injuries alleged to have been received by him while in the employ of the company. The counsel for the company demurred to the evidence and Judge Blackstone's decision will determine the question of the company's liability and negligence.

The Docket.

The docket as finally announced by the court is as follows:

Tuesday, March 21, 10:30 a. m.—Commonwealth vs. H. S. Foster, et al., felony.

Thursday, March 23, 10:30 a. m.—S. Marbach vs. Henrietta Holmes, in ejectment. 2:30 p. m.—R. H. Welch vs. J. M. Guthrie, et al., in ejectment.

Friday, March 24, 10:30 a. m.—Mannhattan Social Club vs. Town of Phoebus, trespass on the case in assumption. 2:30 p. m.—Sterling Laundry Co. vs. Fannie Jackson, motion for judgment. 2:30 p. m.—R. S. Bennett vs. Fannie Jackson, debt appealed from justice.

Saturday, March 25, 10:30 a. m.—Wm. L. Post vs. R. I. Mason and Carter Perkins, receivers of H. R. Ry. & Elec. Co., trespass on the case.

Monday, March 27, 10:30 a. m.—Betty Brooks vs. Stephen Kirby, in detinue. 10:30 a. m.—F. Hamilton vs. Wallace Webster, action of debt appealed from justice.

Tuesday, March 28, 10:30 a. m.—J. G. Griffin vs. N. N. & O. P. Ry. & Elec. Co., damages removed from justice. 10:30 a. m.—J. W. Wells vs. Richard Spiller, et al., in assumption.

H. W. BOOKER NAMED.

JUDGE BLACKSTONE ANNOUNCES DAUGHERTY'S SUCCESSOR.

He Chose His Very Close Personal Friend to Fill the Position for the Unexpired Term.

Mr. Harry W. Booker, who was yesterday named to succeed the late Capt. William T. Daugherty as commissioner of the revenue of Elizabeth City county, will likely appear before Judge Blackstone today and take the oath of office.

The selection of Mr. Booker to the position was made by Judge J. W. C. Blackstone yesterday morning and brought to a close a very spirited political fight. Judge Blackstone, in making the appointment stated the he named Mr. Booker for the office purely on grounds of personal friendship and that he considered Mr. Booker thoroughly capable of performing the duties imposed upon him by the appointment. Judge Blackstone added that he had always regarded Mr. Booker as a close friend and that Mr. Booker had on many occasions demonstrated his friendship to him. He therefore felt that in naming Mr.

"Old Ladies' Tea" and Musical. An "Old Ladies' Tea" and Musical will be given in the home of Mrs. George A. Schmeltz from 3 to 6 o'clock this afternoon. A program consisting of old songs and original poems will be rendered and the proceeds will be devoted to the West End Memorial Baptist church. The public is invited. Admission, 15 cents.

Booker that he not only gave to a friend a position, but that Mr. Booker was in every wise qualified to fill it.

Mr. Booker Had Withdrawn.

Early Sunday morning the situation in the fight changed considerably by the announcement from the friends of Mr. Richard M. Booker, who had been strongly endorsed by the politicians, that Mr. Booker had withdrawn from the race. Mr. Booker saw Judge Blackstone and announced his withdrawal in person to the court.

Almost as soon as Judge Blackstone landed at Old Point, from Eastville, yesterday morning, he was besieged by the friends of the several candidates. Judge Blackstone heard the claims of the aspirants, but not until he opened court did he give the slightest intimation of the decision he had reached. He told all who approached him that he would make the appointment just as soon as court convened, and in anticipation of that announcement the courtroom was filled with representative citizens.

In making the announcement of his selection Judge Blackstone called attention to the numerous petitions he had received, but added that he felt that his personal friendship for Mr. Booker impelled him to make the selection.

Was Deputy Clerk.
Mr. Harry Wise Booker, the successful candidate, was for several years deputy clerk of Elizabeth City county, but for the past few years he has been the employment clerk in the Newport News shipyard. He is a brother of Mr. Hunter R. Booker, the well known merchant, and of Mr. Marshall R. Booker, who was an aspirant for the office. He is an uncle of Mr. R. M. Booker.

Judge Blackstone also announced that he had requested Sheriff R. K. Curtis, Clerk of the Courts Harry H. Holt and Judge Edgar E. Montague to act as a committee in behalf of the family of the late Capt. William T. Daugherty, so that the family may get any moneys coming into the office up to the time of the death of Capt. Daugherty. This committee is to ascertain the value of the work already done on the commissioner's books by the dead officer.

Mr. Booker's appointment is for the unexpired term of Capt. W. T. Daugherty and will last until January, 1907.

Dr. Willis Read Paper.
Dr. F. D. Willis, of Newport News, read an interesting paper on "Partial Excision of the Inferior Turbinate" before the Elizabeth City County Medical Society, at its meeting last night. The society met with Dr. Walter A. Becker.
